

Greetings from a snowy Maine!

Since most folks are in maintenance mode this week, this ezine isn't really an ezine at all. This is a greeting and a question.

First the greeting: I simply wanted to wish you all the joy of this season. If you celebrate Christmas as I do, Merry Christmas! If not, I hope the change in pace during this time will replenish your spirit and energize you.

Now the question: Would you find it most helpful if I
(1) continue with my "customer/donor evangelist" messages or
(2) if I do a few messages based on goal setting for the New Year?

Blessings,

Marc

PS Please reply to this message to answer the question!

Marc A. Pitman is an executive coach to nonprofit leaders. An expert in helping people identify their natural abilities, he's committed to providing down-to-earth information that will decrease stress and put the "fun" back into fundraising!

The Extreme Fundraising Ezine is a complimentary newsletter of The Fundraising Coach (<http://fundraisingcoach.com>). Feel free to pass it on!

(c) 2003 The Pitman Group.
"Fundraising is an extreme sport" and "Extreme Fundraising" are trademarks of The Pitman Group.
