

Extreme Fundraising Special Edition—December 29, 2003

Greetings and happy end-of-December!

Thank you to everyone that's responded to my question about continuing with the customer evangelism messages or doing a New Year type of goal setting program. Most of you said you'd like both! I'm flattered. grin

I've created a separate "Pitman Coaching Goals Program" series of messages. All you have to do is send a blank email to:

goals@aweber.com

My regularly scheduled Extreme Fundraising series on customer evangelism will continue as normal. You don't need to do anything to keep getting those.

But if you're interested in a fresh, simple program to set goals, just send a blank email to goals@aweber.com.

Have a wonderful (and hopefully productive) week!

Marc

PS If you feel more comfortable, you can subscribe to the Goals Program from the home page of my other website <http://marcpitman.com/>

PPS I'd love suggestions on a better name for this program. I'll even give a free coaching session to the winner!
